Subject: Acknowledgement letter for collaboration

Dear Sir,

Greetings from The Banyan!

We are pleased to inform you that it has been over 10 years since The Banyan collaborated with the Madras School of Social Work on capacity building and training. This partnership has been contributory to the trainees as well as to the overall growth of the organization.

Through capacity building, the organization aims to provide theoretical and practical sessions and understanding various approaches to mental health care, evidence-based practice, structure and process of a care facility in addition to training in research methods including data collection, transcription, and report writing, ensuring a comprehensive learning exposure and preparing students towards larger contributions to the development sector.

We are grateful for the support received from Madras School of Social Work, and look forward to many more years of fruitful collaboration.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Dr. K.V Kishore Kumar,

Director,

The Banyan
