SPEAKER:

1. Mr Celestine Paulraj, a Psychologist & Former Professor

Number of students who participated: Around 40 students of first year participated in the event.

Objective of the Soft Skill Training: The objective of this session was to introduce the students with the concept of soft skills relating to - of Positive words bring Positive Influence. And to make them understand it's importance in today's competitive world.

About the program: The learning of soft skills has become an important and integral part for the management students. Keeping in mind this objective the Madras school of Social Work, MA HRM department organised a training session for the students of I-year MA HRM students. As it was a training programme an expert from the industry was called upon to train the students. Mr Celestine Paulraj, a psychologist & former Professor came to give insights to the aspiring students. Mr Celestine Paulraj took an interactive session where he explained through examples the importance of soft skills learning. How they become important for the cooperate world.

Outcome: most of the students find the session interesting and meaningful. They learned to develop these skills in the areas of Positive words bring Positive Influence, 3 areas of listening and 3 tools to connect with audience with through various yet effective ways.

Celestine Paulraj

Celestine Paulraj is a highly versatile speaker with over 27 years of skilled experience in public speaking, corporate training and motivational workshops.

Ever since the early 80s when he finished his higher education in the reputed institutions of Madras Christian College and Madras School of Social Work, he has been known and revered for the way he speaks to and with people. Even before he could become an entrepreneur, in his last corporate role, as the Head of Employee Engagement for a large Multinational Bank - a role in which he received several awards of highest accolades - it is people who inspired him towards excellence. In return, he educates and inspires people while touching their lives.

His gift for interpersonal interactions and passion for motivating those around him led him to become a specialist in Soft Skill Training, for a diverse group, including students, teachers, government staff, Medicos and corporate employees. He has to his credit more than 10,000 hours of such training across Geographies.

These were some of the reasons why Celestine also excelled in his close to a decade-long role as a Part time Faculty for Post Graduate students in the Department of Social Work at Madras Christian College.

His career has seen him skyrocket to new heights with every passing year as he has a wide range of experience in working for different organizations. Manufacturing, Consumer, Engineering, Automobile, Garments, and BPOs with workforce span comprising from 900 to 10,500 employees, are just some of the domains he has worked in.

Celestine has also run flagship products for students and Faculty in the Education Industries. In one such breakthrough initiative, he partnered with the Vice Chancellor of a major university along with a consortium of 5 other organizations and the CII to design and implement a Post-Graduate syllabus on soft skills, across its colleges and run a TTT for its Faculty members.

Top 5 outstanding strengths of his, as identified by Gallup are:

- Harmony
- Analytical
- Responsibility
- Consistency, and
- Connectedness

Enthusiastic, warm, Harmonious and empathetic, Celestine draws his audiences into his messages and leaves them with positive energy.
