VIDIYAL FORUM WOMEN'S DAY DEBATE

Throughout the year of the many useful workshops and webinars on various topics .There was a debate arranged for the students by Vidiyal Forum of BSW department, in commemoration of International Women's Day on 08.03.2021 (Monday) at 10 A.M at the MSSW Auditorium on the topic "IS FEMINISM MISUNDERSTOOD OR MISUSED".The debate was open for all to participate from the department and of all the eager participants who gave out their names suitable participants were shortlisted . The shortlisted six members were

- 1.Ms.Anushree
- 2.Ms.Yazhini
- 3.Mr.Yadeendar
- 4.Ms.Krithika
- 5.Mr.Yugendra Bharathi
- 6.Ms.Gifta Sharon

The chief guest for the debate was Ms. Padma Priya, a noted Microbiologist and a very well known social activist. The function began at 10.00 AM. The entire debate was led through by Mr.Mikhail of third year B.S.W doing the anchoring . The welcome address was given by Ms.Shirley, executive member of Vidiyal Forum. Then Ms.Yurekaa, executive member of Vidiyal Forum, gave us a brief profile of our chief guest. The chief guest was presented with a bouquet and then our H.O.D Mrs. P.K Vathani presented a speech about women's day.

Then the debate began with Ms.Yazhini presenting her views for which the rebuttal was given by Mr.Yugendra Bharathi. Then Ms.Anushri presented her views for which the rebuttal was given by Ms.Krithika. Then Mr. Yadeendar presented his views for which the rebuttal was given by Ms.Gifta Sharon.

The chief guest then enlightened us all with her views and ideas on true feminism and also gave her words of encouragement to the participants. She discussed about feminism, feminist and dowry using some examples. The session was very interactive and informative. We also understood the importance of questioning. Then H.O.D mam presented the chief guest with a memento. The participants received their certificates from the Chief Guest. The vote of thanks was given by Mr.Tharakesh, the president of Vidiyal Forum.
