It is the story of a woman with two children, leading a life from every dead end to the new beginning and keeping alive the spirit of life. This story connects with everyone as we go through life with lot of uncertainties and unexpected events. Life is a ride. It depends on one's 'self' whether one stays on the ride or falls out of ride of life. At the dead ends what keeps one moving to the new beginning is the 'Hope'-that things will improve, 'Faith'-that someone who is above will not let you down and 'confidence'-that I can do it.

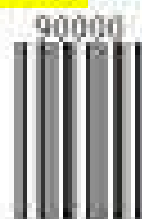

Dr. Dominic Savio is currently an Asst. Professor in the Department of Social Work (SF), and earlier was in the department of MA HR & OD in Madras School of Social Work (MSSW), Chennai, India.
